HOW CAN WE HELP?

Our goal is to increase Indigenous employment within the Qantas Group and raise the profile of Indigenous staff.

The process is a merit-based recruitment. While there are no identified positions, Origin Communications Group is committed to providing you with personal, professional and practical assistance, including:

- Resume presentation
- Explaining recruitment processes
- Preparing for interviews
- Information sessions
- Telephone support
- Post placement support

We work with you to identify preferred positions and locations, explain what is available, when positions come up, where jobs are, what is expected, liaise with Qantas Group Managers on your behalf and get you 'job ready'.
